

Greetings!

FlightSafety is looking forward to your visit on the upcoming 20th Annual FSEMC event in Tulsa, Oklahoma. It is of great pleasure for FlightSafety to host this annual event and their guests. We would like to take this opportunity to invite the spouses and guests to join us for an exciting experience to some of Oklahoma's fabulous places. Please register for these events by emailing the information on the second page to Criselda.pryor@flightsafety.com. During the conference, please check in at the FSEMC Registration Table. Late registration is also at this table, if available.

We look forward to seeing you in September!

Gilcrease Museum

It is one of the country's best facilities for the preservation and study of American art and history. The museum's charm, beauty and Art collections draw thousands of visitors from around the world to the Osage Hills for a glimpse into the past. Gilcrease museums houses the World's largest, most comprehensive collection of art and artifacts of the American West. <http://gilcrease.utulsa.edu/>

Utica Square

Over the years, Utica Square has earned the reputation as the area's finest shopping center. A dynamic mixture of quality stores and restaurants in an elegant outdoor setting has made this unique destination a hometown treasure. <http://www.uticasquare.com/our-story>

Woolaroc Museum & Wildlife Preserve

The property was established in 1925 as a retreat for oilman and founder of Phillips Petroleum Company, Frank Phillips. Today, the Woolaroc Museum & Wildlife Preserve is an educational and entertaining hub situated in the breathtaking Osage Hills of northeast Oklahoma. The museum presents one of America's most unique displays of Western art and artifacts. The 3,700 acre wildlife preserve is home to more than 30 varieties of native and exotic animals and birds.
